

ANNIVERSARY SALE

This great Sale starts Monday morning, Jan. 8, at 8 o'clock. For bargains and prices see full page advertisement on page 3 of today's paper.

The Homer Fitts Company

ACTORS OUT OF WORK.

Fifteen Hundred Player Folk Stranded in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Fifteen hundred actors and actresses, it was ascertained from theatrical agencies Thursday night, are looking for employment in Chicago.

The number includes leading men and women, chorus girls and men and vaudeville artists. It is said that within three weeks more than 40 companies have given up the "road" in towns near Chicago.

The stranded ones are discussing what they claim is the most disastrous year in a decade in theatricals.

TALK OF THE TOWN

All goods marked down at Vaughan's.

Big sale waists to-day, 50c up, at Vaughan's.

Auction to-day, 2 and 7 p. m. City Auction Rooms.

Eighteen sweet oranges for 25 cents. United Fruit Store.

Come to our garage and see our new 1912 models. Perry Automobile Co.

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. Robinson Monday afternoon at 2:30.

Come and see the oranges we are offering at 18 for 25 cents. Diversi Fruit Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sale of furs, coats and sweaters at Vaughan's.

January clearance sale—winter underwear—at Vaughan's.

Miss Marion Stopple returned this afternoon to her home in Port Henry, N. Y., after a week's visit with friends in the city.

Miss Jennie M. MacDonald returned home yesterday from the Pittsford sanatorium, where she has been for several months.

Remember the candy and orange sale at the New England Fruit Co. to-day; 20 nice, juicy navel oranges for 25c; two lbs. fresh, home-made chocolates for 25c.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1912.

Weather Forecast.

Increasing cloudiness, probably followed by snow to-night or Sunday; high northwest winds diminishing.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Eighteen sweet oranges for 25 cents. United Fruit Store.

Consignment of limp received at Oscar Borgh's store.

C. W. Camp went to Boston yesterday on a business trip.

Mrs. Sanitary barber shop, the home of Barre's particular men.

Edward Duba of Waterbury visited friends in the city yesterday.

W. C. Preston of Pomfret was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Tickets for Socialist Lyceum course on sale at Kendrick's drug store.

Buy your sheets and pillow slips at the price of cotton at Vaughan's.

Tenement to Rent—Seven rooms on Averill street.

Apply to C. W. Averill.

George T. Bowes left this afternoon for Burlington to spend the week-end.

Auction at City Auction Rooms at 2 and 7 p. m. to-day. A ladies' rocker given away.

Public Scotch dance, Worthen hall Saturday, Jan. 6, 8 p. m. Gents, 50c; ladies, free.

Rev. A. C. Griffin, curate of St. Monica's church, was a visitor in Burlington yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Skeels of Glens Falls, N. Y., were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

E. L. Wallen and W. H. Russell went this noon to Burlington to remain over the week-end.

Robert Martin returned last night to Boston, after a ten days' visit with friends in the city.

George Kent and Edward Kerwin left this afternoon for Montreal, P. Q., where they will pass the week-end.

Have you noticed our big special on navel oranges at 18 for 25 cents? Come and get some at Diversi Fruit Co's.

Tea aprons, 17c each, at Perry's on Saturday; round, square, and a variety of different shapes that were 25c each.

Miss Ethel Goodhue returned to Ithaca, N. Y., yesterday afternoon, after a week's visit with relatives in the city.

A regular meeting of Barre branch, G. C. I. A., will be held in Miles hall Monday evening, Jan. 8, at 7 o'clock. James Mortimer, secy.

Miss Clara Bingham, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Miner of Farwell street, returned to her home in Randolph this noon.

Do not miss this opportunity to purchase 18 pounds of granulated sugar and one pound of Spure's Reverse 50-cent tea for $1.50 at Eastman Bros.

N. E. O. P. dance in Miles hall Saturday evening. Gents, 50c; ladies, free. Refreshments. Orchestra, E. W. Bruce, leader. Look for the sign, "Dance."

Oranges, oranges! We start our first big sale on oranges to-day and Saturday. We are offering sweet navel oranges at 18 for 25 cents. Remember the place, Diversi Fruit Co.

Among the guests registered at the City hotel yesterday and to-day were: J. M. Jones, Omaha, Neb.; J. J. Owens, Hartford, Conn.; W. H. Harrison, New York City.

Just think—you can get 20 nice, juicy navel oranges for 25c, and also two lbs. of fresh, fancy, assorted, home-made chocolates for 25c to-day at the New England Fruit Co.

Rev. G. H. Taylor of the Evangelical church, Montpelier, is to give an address at the Salvation Army hall this evening, to which the public is invited. An interesting and enthusiastic meeting is expected.

The Ureshi Junin met in the recreation hall of the Mathewson school last evening for a social time. Refreshments were served and an excellent evening was enjoyed by all who chose to attend.

E. T. Hindman, the well-known mountaineer, who has been passing two weeks in the city on business, left this morning for Boston, where he will remain for a few days before returning to his home in Milwaukee, Wis.

Friday arrivals at the hotel Otis were as follows: C. R. Hubbard, Boston; H. A. Lewis, Burlington; C. W. Booth, Essex Junction; R. G. Bass, Boston; J. J. Owens, Hartford, Conn.; E. S. Probst, Southbridge, Mass.; A. D. McIver, Vershire; C. W. Foster, North Troy.

Among the pictures to be shown at the opera house to-night is the great Irish play, "Kathleen Mavourneen." Hickey and Nelson and Charles and Grace Von Smith, the two excellent vaudeville acts, will close their engagements to-night.

At the Church street gymnasium last evening the boys' club of the Methodist church defeated the boys of the Episcopal church at basketball by the score of 54 to 13. Drennan and Blackmore made the most baskets for the winners, and Verner and Sector for the defeated team.

Miss Grace Barclay entertained eighteen of her young friends at her home on Park street last evening from seven until ten o'clock. The time was pleasantly passed with games and music for diversions and later delicious refreshments of punch and wafers were served the young guests.

The Royal Arcanum with its usual promptness paid yesterday the full benefit, $1,500, to the beneficiary of the late Edwin F. Smith. Barely a week had elapsed since the proof and papers were put in motion, the draft also having to come through the supreme treasurer, located at St. Louis.

With the thermometer 22 degrees below zero, the new granite drinking fountain was working perfectly this morning, somewhat to the surprise of some people; and now it would seem that Robert Turner's device for preventing frost getting into the fountain is to meet with success. Last night gave it a fair test.

Birds of the Ancona strain belonging to C. H. Kenson of 20 Church street were awarded the following places in the annual exhibit of the Vermont Poultry association recently held in Montpelier: First cockerel, first and second pullets, first and second pen, and several specials. It will be seen that Mr. Kenson's birds were among the best in their class at the show.

Notice.

To the employees of Charles Bianchi and Sons:

Not having finished repairing, we will not start up business until Wednesday. Charles Bianchi and Sons.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Stop at The Vaughan Store.

All silks in Abbott's clearance sale.

Josie Lougee, domestic nurse, 7 Summer street. Tel. 412-4.

Eighteen sweet oranges for 25 cents. United Fruit Store.

George L. Gee returned last night from a business trip to Burlington.

John G. Connolly arrived in the city this morning for an extended visit.

Call at Perry garage, rear City hotel, and see the new light delivery car.

Mrs. Etta N. Sargent, who has been visiting her son, Attorney A. A. Sargent, returned this noon to her home in Ludlow.

Headquarters for popular music, 18 cents a copy; also the Century edition, regular 10-cent music, three copies for 25 cents. Mrs. H. S. Miles, 70 No. Main street.

INDEBTEDNESS IS $4,800

So Reported at Orange County Tel. Co.'s Annual Meeting.

Chelsea, Jan. 6.—At the annual meeting of the Orange County Telephone company, which was held here on Tuesday, January 2, Otho C. Williams presided as chairman of the meeting, which was the most harmonious of any meeting in the history of the company. The present indebtedness of the company is $4,800 or an increase of $800 during the past year. The company now has 1,775 shares and an assessment of $6.25 on each share was voted for the ensuing year, which, if paid before the first of March, a discount of 25 cents will be made, making the assessment for the current year, virtually $4.69 per share. It was voted to elect seven directors and the following gentlemen were elected: Charles L. Speare of West Corinth; Austin L. Patterson of Washington; Harry Daniels of East Montpelier; Dr. Elmer E. Ellis of Brookfield; G. R. Andrews of Northfield; Eugene H. Kennedy of Chelsea and Horace M. Farnham of Montpelier.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

After the meeting of the stock holders the directors held a meeting and organized by electing the following officers: President, Charles L. Speare; vice president, G. R. Andrews; secretary and treasurer, Roscoe H. Williams of West Corinth; auditor, Martin W. Chamberlain of Washington.

Stock Reducing Preinventory Sale FOR CASH ONLY

In addition to odd lots and mussed goods at one-half price on our front center counter we will give

Ten Per Cent Discount

on all surplus stock of Winter Underwear, Hosiery, Knit Goods, Yarns, Corsets, House Dresses, Wrappers, Kimonos, Dressing Sacks, Sweaters and on all piece goods such as Dress Goods, Percales, Gingham, Outings, Fleece Goods, Table Linens, Cottons, Sheetings, Ribbons, Laces and Embroideries.

Furs at Exact Wholesale Cost

First here gets first choice. Sale stops as soon as stock is sufficiently reduced, notice of which will be given.

HENRY W. KNIGHT

Successor to Vaale & Knight

Currier Building - North Main St., Barre, Vt.

CARNEGIE AS STEEL WITNESS.

Complies With Request of House Probe Committee.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Andrew Carnegie has been asked by the House "steel trust" investigating committee to appear before it Wednesday, Jan. 10, and has assured Chairman Stanley of the committee he will be present.

PRETTY COLD AT ST. ALBANS.

Thermometers Registered 20 to 28 Deg. Below zero—Swanton, 23.

St. Albans, Jan. 6.—Mercury readings at St. Albans this morning were from 20 to 28 degrees below zero. At Swanton the temperature was 23 below and at Sheldon and Enosburg Falls 20.

EDUCATION FOR EFFICIENCY

</